Secretary of Labor,
Complainant,
v.
Imperial Sugar Company; Imperial-Savannah, L.P., Respondent.

Region 4
OSHRC Docket No. 08-1104
OSHA Inspection No. 310988712

Notice Of Docketing and Instructions To Employer

Notice is given that the above-captioned case contesting the citations issued from the above-cited inspection was received by the Commission on July 30, 2008, and assigned the docket number listed above. All future documents and communications relating to this case should include the docket number and should be served on all parties.

Enclosed are copies of the following: (1) a Guide to Review Commission Procedures, (2) a form notifying your affected employees of the contest of the citations, and (3) a return post card notifying the Commission that the above-cited employer has notified its employees of this fact. Rule 7 of the Commission's Rules of Procedure sets forth the necessary procedures for posting and advising affected employees of this action. Failure to comply with these posting procedures and failure to complete and return the enclosed post card immediately upon receipt of this letter may result in the dismissal of your notice of contest. If you intend to request Simplified Proceedings, mail your request to the Executive Secretary within 20 days after the date of this notice and send copies to all parties. See Section 4 of the Guide.

Commission Rule 35 requires that corporate employers disclose all corporate parents, subsidiaries, and affiliates when they file an answer or any other initial pleading. The rule also states that corporate employers have a continuing duty to notify the Commission of any change in the information. The Secretary of Labor is now represented by the Regional Solicitor. If you have settled this matter or you desire to settle this matter you should contact the Regional Solicitor at (404)302-5435. You are advised to consult the Guide to Review Commission Procedures to answer any questions regarding this matter.
