SECRETARY OF LABOR,

Complainant,

v.

EVERGREEN CONSTRUCTION COMPANY.,

Respondent.

OSHRC Docket No. 12-2385

BRIEFING NOTICE

The Commission requests that the parties brief the following issue:

Whether the judge erred in concluding that Respondent had knowledge of the violative condition (the subcontractor's employees' failure to use fall protection) with respect to the alleged violation of 29 C.F.R. § 1926.501(b)(1). In discussing knowledge, the parties may address whether the judge erred in the application of the multi-employer worksite doctrine.

The parties are advised that when the merits and/or characterization of an item are before the Commission for review, the appropriateness of the penalty is also subject to review. Accordingly, the parties may address the amount of the penalty if they so choose.

All briefs are to be filed in accordance with Commission Rule 93.<sup>1</sup> The first brief is to be filed within 40 days of this notice. A party who does not intend to file a brief must notify the Commission in writing setting forth the reason therefor within the applicable time for filing briefs, and shall serve a copy on all other parties. The time for <sup>1</sup> The Commission requests that all briefs include an alphabetical table of authorities with references to the pages on which they are cited, and that an asterisk be placed in the left-hand margin of the table to indicate those authorities on which the brief principally relies. The Commission also requests that copies of cited authority, other than statutes, case law, law journal articles, and legal treatises, be provided to the Commission and to the opposing party. Parties should be cautioned that these materials will be considered only if appropriate.

filing briefs (or similar notices of intent) of opposing parties shall commence on the date of service.
