Secretary of Labor,

Complainant

v.

Sea World of Florida, LLC,

Respondent.

OSHRC Docket No. 10-1705

Order Granting Joint Motion to Reschedule Hearing

The parties' joint motion to continue the hearing in this matter to allow time to complete their discovery is GRANTED. Also, the undersigned is currently in review of the respondent's motion for protective order filed in this case.

The hearing previously scheduled to begin on April 25, 2011, is canceled and rescheduled to commence September 19, 2011, at 9:00 a.m., in Orlando, Florida. The parties anticipate the hearing to take a week. The parties will be notified by subsequent order at a later date as to the exact location of the hearing.

No further continuances of the hearing will be considered.

The parties shall exchange, within ten (10) days before commencement of the hearing on the merits, the following information with a copy to the undersigned:

1. A statement of the position of the party as to each unresolved issue of law and fact.
2. The name and address of each witness and a brief summary of the witness' expected testimony. Any expert witness shall be so designated, and the designation shall be accompanied by a brief statement of the witness' qualifications and area of expertise.
3. A list and brief description of all documents and other exhibits to be offered in evidence. Copies of exhibits need not be submitted to the undersigned Judge prior to the hearing.

Pursuant to Section 9(b) of the Occupational Safety and Health Act of 1970 and Section 2200.7(i) and (j) of the Commission's Rules of Procedure, the Respondent is hereby required to serve and/or post this Order Rescheduling Hearing.

SO ORDERED.
