OCCUPATIONAL SAFETY AND HEALTH REVIEW COMMISSION
1120 20th Street, N.W., Ninth Floor
Washington, DC 20036-3457

SECRETARY OF LABOR,

Complainant,

v.

OTIS ELEVATOR COMPANY,

Respondent.

OSHRC Docket No. 10-1057

BRIEFING NOTICE

The parties are requested to brief all issues presented in the Respondent's Petition for Discretionary Review. In particular, the parties are asked to address the following issues:

Did the judge err in finding that the cited fall protection standard, 29 C.F.R. § 1926.502(d)(15), was applicable to the cited condition and/or that employees were exposed to the alleged hazard?

If not, did the judge err in finding non-compliance with the cited standard?

The parties are advised that when the merits or characterization of an item are before the Commission for review, the appropriateness of the penalty is also subject to review. Accordingly, the parties may address the amount of the penalty if they so choose.

All briefs are to be filed in accordance with Commission Rule 93.¹ The first brief is to be filed within 40 days of this notice. A party who does not intend to file a brief must notify the Commission in writing setting forth the reason therefor within the applicable time for filing briefs, and shall serve a copy on all other parties. The time for filing briefs (or similar notices of intent) of opposing parties shall commence on the date of service.
